Resurrection of the Dead

Continuing Hebrews 6:2 to discuss elementary principles Christians should know, we arrive at the next elementary principle. Scripture has a lot to say about the resurrection.

And many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, some to shame and everlasting contempt. (Daniel 12:2)

Do not marvel at this; for the hour is coming in which all who are in the graves will hear His voice and come forth—those who have done good, to the resurrection of life, and those who have done evil, to the resurrection of condemnation. (John 5:28–29)

I have hope in God ... that there will be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and the unjust. (Acts 24:15)

These passages present the truth that all dead will be raised, but those raised who are condemned will receive their condemnation while Christians will receive life, and not condemnation.

My favorite look at the resurrection is what Paul wrote about in 1 Corinthians 15:35–55. He contrasts our present state with what we will become at the resurrection.

- Corruption vs. Incorruption (v. 42)
- Dishonor vs. Glory (v. 43)
- Weakness vs. Power (v. 43)
- Natural vs. Spiritual (v. 44)
- Living vs. Life-giving (v. 45)
- Earthly vs. Heavenly (vv. 47–48)
- Mortal vs. Immortal (v. 54)

Wednesday evening, we will continue our study in Matthew 5. Our last class we looked at verses 3 and 4 and this week we will begin with verse 5. If you are not attending a class? Please consider joining us in the East end of the MPR for our continued study of the beatitudes.

Matthew 5:5

Blessed are the meek,
For they shall inherit the earth.

Meekness (praôtes) in the NT is a natural virtue, a Christian grace, and one of the “fruits of the spirit” (Gal 5:23). Jesus said, “Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me; for I am gentle (meek) and lowly in heart” (Matt 11:29). Paul said, “I...entreat you, by the meekness and gentleness of Christ—I who am humble” (2 Cor 10:1). Paul not only extolled and emulated this virtue of Christ but commended it to his churches. “I therefore, a prisoner for the Lord, beg you to lead a life worthy of the calling to which you have been called, with all lowliness and meekness...” (Eph 4:1f.). He admonished the Colossians to put on the graces of “compassion, kindness, lowliness, meekness, and patience...” (Col 3:12). Likewise he commends it to Timothy and to Titus (1 Tim 6:11; Titus 3:2). James instructs Christians to “receive with meekness the implanted word” (Jas 1:21); and recommends to the wise and understanding that “By his good life let him show his works in the meekness of wisdom” (3:13). Peter wrote that all Christians should always be prepared to make a defense of their hope “with gentleness and reverence” (1 Pet 3:15).

HYMNBOOKS # 14

Marching AS to War

One of the greatest Christian hymns of the 19th century was Sabine Baring-Gould's poem, Onward, Christian Soldiers which has universally been sung to Sir Arthur Sullivan's tune which we know as ST GERTRUDE. With the rise of liberal theology in the last half of the 20th century, this hymn became the center of fierce controversies within several denominations when it came time to revise their hymnbooks. As incredible as it appears to most of us, the argument of the left was that the hymn glorifies militarism.

Their interpretation of the hymn goes "Onward Christian Soldiers Marching To War." OK folks, this is elementary school stuff, but the word AS negates their literal interpretation.. more on this next week

Currently we are searching for fathers that are willing to lead family devotionals during the summer. The dates that need to be filled are May 26th, June 23rd, July 21st, and August 4th. The overarching theme for our young youth this summer is "SWEET" and we will be tying in the family devotionals as well as the family retreat coming up in October. I am hoping to get some fathers that have not led in the past in order to provide them an opportunity to serve the Lord in a new, and perhaps uncomfortable way. Looking at you YAC class. It's your time to shine. Please let me know if you are able and willing to take on this role.

The first youth devotional for our youth group is coming up on May 19th. Andrew and Jana Falwell have graciously volunteered their residence. A bus will depart from the church following evening services. If you plan on swimming, please be sure to wear appropriate swim wear and bring a towel. The bus will arrive back at Glendale Road at 9:30 for you to pick up your kids.

FBS planning has begun, and the sets are being built as each day passes. We are going to include the adults in our skits this year to spice things up. Any adults that would like to volunteer and show off your acting skills, please speak to me and we can get the ball rolling on those as well. We are doing an adventure theme this year, with the title being "Tarps & Treasures." FBS will take place June 3rd - 6th this year.

Our Senior Blessing Night will be held on June 2nd following evening services. We have a total of 7 seniors this year. They are Kesslyeigh Brittain, Ryan DeWitt, Emily Dunn, Jack Elmore, Jack Richey, Eve Stark, and Kameron Starks. We will have tables set up for each senior in the commons and will have punch and cake following evening services.

Camp registration has begun. If you plan on sending your youth to WKYC this year, please register them online at wkyc.org. To receive the Church discount code, please talk to Jacob Vaughan as this procedure has changed as well. Camp is a wonderful opportunity for your kids to grow closer to one another and most importantly, the Lord. I look forward to seeing all your kids at camp. If you have registered your child and have not paid in your portion to the Church, please do so asap.
