“Nothing we do today, will make God love us any more than He already does, and nothing we do today, will make Him love us any less.”

A Reason to Give Thanks

On Thursday, we will gather with loved ones and eat a meal. We may watch football and participate in family traditions. For others, it may be the first time you notice an empty seat that a loved one once occupied. A mix of emotions can paint Thanksgiving because of what has or hasn't happened, who is or isn't present. Yet, hopefully, even in the bad, we can find a reason to be thankful.

Enter into His gates with thanksgiving,

And into His courts with praise.

Be thankful to Him, and bless His name.

For the LORD is good;

His mercy is everlasting,

And His truth endures to all generations. (Psalm 100:4–5)

Of this psalm, one author notes, “The gates were the threshold, the point where the pilgrim crosses from the zone of the profane into the sacred precincts of the temple. It's understandable that they appear in various psalms as a beckoning image, the place where the lover enters the realm of his desires ... First, the pilgrims are enjoined to enter the gates; then they are standing within, in the courts of the temple.”

Here's one thing I believe we can all be thankful for come what may: We will one day, by the grace of God and sacrifice of his son, enter into the heavenly temple. If this year, you find yourself struggling to be thankful, just know that in that grand court of God's presence, the reasons you may not be thankful will no longer exist. The temple was meant to be a pocket of heaven on earth. Yet, one day, we get to go to the actual place itself.

So, be thankful for the hope we have. Be thankful that God loves us. Be thankful that Jesus died for us. Be thankful that our present sufferings are bleak when compared to the glory we'll one day enjoy. Be thankful for what we have. May God bless you to this end.

Steven

Bicentennial Minute

Of the congregations that exist today, the county church that began earliest is thought to have been New Concord. The date most often given for its establishment is 1845 but that is based upon scant concrete historical documents and historians believe that it was established even earlier given that Concord (under an earlier name) was one of the earliest established communities in the county.

In nearby Henry County, the Blood River church was established in 1842. Two very early preachers in Henry County who also heavily influenced the church in Calloway were Dr. John R. McCall (1803-1866) and John R. Howard, both of whom later moved on out of the area. A comprehensive history of the Blood River church was done by Don Fodge in 2012 and this 282-page detailed history is then finest such history of any church around!

YOUTH

Jacob Vaughan

Fall retreat was a blast this past weekend. We had a total of 40 attend, and I think that every one of them, not only had a good time, but were also able to reflect and apply the things that were talked about by our speaker Scott Phillips. I want to give a huge shout out to all my chaperones, cooks, and teachers over the weekend. Thank you, David and Tina Ryan, Jody and Janette DeWitt, Ryan Houston, Kennette Jones, Lacy McKeel, Tiffany Milam, Kelly Vaughan, Scott and Lori Phillips, Tim Stark, and Seth Grogan. Without these devoted adults, events such as this past weekend cannot take place. Thank you so very much for everything you did this past weekend.

The youth Christmas party is being bumped up to the 16th of December. This is a change to what is on the calendar. Please mark it down. More details will be given at a later date.

CYC Signup has been posted on the bulletin board. It will take place from February 24th - 26th. We will head out after school on Thursday the 23rd of February. The cost for attendance will be $120 plus enough money for a meal on your own in Gatlinburg as well as for any souvenirs you desire.

The next part of the secret message is "sin."

BREAKFAST WITH SANTA

Saturday, December 3rd, 9-11 AM

Everyone is encouraged to wear their pajamas. If you have any questions, please see Mallory Bybee.

“Rejoice, Give Thanks, Pray”

THANK YOU

Being on the receiving end of kindness is not where we would have chosen to be, however, that is where we have been for several months! Oh, what a difference it makes to know that others are with you on a journey you don't want to take.

For each act of kindness shown to us – cards, calls, text, visits, thoughts, food, prayers and gifts, we are so appreciative! Our prayers are that Tommy regains his health and we are blessed with the ability to pay forward the kindness that has been shown to us!

Please, keep praying!
