Ancient Interpretations (Acts 8:16)

In Acts, Luke uses a similar phrase for different meanings. Given the context, it's up to the reader to discern what he means by what he says. Let's lay the groundwork. In Acts 2:38, we're told that when one repents and is baptized, they receive forgiveness of sins and the Holy Spirit. This is stated with a promise to those present, those who come after them, and all who are far off, as many as the Lord calls to Himself by preaching the gospel. We conclude that everyone who repents and is baptized, obeying God, receives forgiveness and, more pointedly, the gift of the Holy Spirit. Some folks disagree as to what the gift of the Holy Spirit is. Still, I interpret it as the believer being given the Holy Spirit himself. If you disagree, that's a discussion we can have another time since that isn't the focus of this article.

As we read through Acts, we come to Acts 8, where Philip is preaching to the Samaritans. We read that after Philip preached and worked wonders, many people, men and women, believed the preaching and were baptized (Acts 8:12). We read a couple verses later that Peter and John are sent to Samaria to pray "for them that they might receive the Holy Spirit" (Acts 8:15-16). Have we misunderstood our earlier interpretation? Many brethren interpret as I do as a double entendre (a word or phrase open to two interpretations). In Acts 2:38, we don't see Christians working signs and wonders. Only the apostles could work signs and wonders (Acts 2:43; 4:33; 5:12). Even in Acts 8:18, the laying on of apostolic hands conferred the ability to work signs and wonders. What are we to make of these two interpretations?

Let's ask an ancient Christian by the name of John Chrysostom. He flourished around the end of the fourth century and was Bishop of Constantinople. While we may have many disagreements about how church was done in his time, we must credit him for being a great expositor of Scripture. That second name, Chrysostom, wasn't a surname but an honorarium given to him by many people. It means "Golden-mouthed" in Greek because John was a gifted orator who captivated audiences with his eloquent speaking style. He preached a series of homilies in the book of Acts, and when he comes to Acts 8:16, here's what he wrote: "How was it then that they did not receive the Spirit? They had received the Spirit of remission of sins but not the Spirit of the signs.... To show that this was the case and that it was the Spirit of signs that they had not received, notice how Simon, once he saw the result, came and asked for this." It would seem that John agrees with our conclusion, and he did centuries before we opened the Word.

HYMNBOOKS # 6

Arguably, the one individual most responsible for the singing among the Churches of Christ in the 20th century was Elmer Leon Jorgenson (1886-1968). The first major hymnal by someone in the Stone-Campbell movement who did not use instruments appeared in 1921. Great Songs of the Church went on to become the most enduring hymnal in the history of the movement, with new editions published in 1922, 1925, 1937, 1975 and 1986.

Some of the success of this hymnal can be attributed to the fact that Jorgenson was a trained musician who realized the value of providing the Churches of Christ with a book of quality, timeless and classic hymns that were absent from many of the other books of the time.

At one point in the mid 20th century, most of the larger churches used Great Songs. This included, Broadway, Paducah, 7th & College, Mayfield, East Wood, Paris as well as our own 7th & Poplar here in Murray.

Camp registration has begun. If you plan on sending your youth to WKYC this year, please register them online at wkyc.org. You will most likely have to start a new registration form as we are using a different handler for registration this year. In order to receive the Church discount code, please talk to Jacob Vaughan as this procedure has changed as well. Camp is a wonderful opportunity for your kids to grow closer to one another and most importantly, the Lord. I look forward to seeing all your kids at camp.

The first "Man Camp" will be held on March 17th between services. This is for middle school boys and up. Each participant will need money for lunch at Mr. Gatti's. Afterwards we will be going to the Gibson's to do basic mechanics like changing tires and the like. If anyone has questions please contact Nick Weber. The sign up sheet is posted in the youth board.

A change has been made to the youth calendar.

Please note that the Easter egg hunt has been moved up a week and will now be on March 23rd. The YAC class will be running the event and will be currently in the process of gathering eggs. There will be a tote under the youth board and a sign up sheet for you to write how many kids you will be bringing to the event and their ages.

The youth calendar has been made for 2024. You can find a copy of this calendar on our website at
