Resurrection

Christians aren't immune to worldliness and sin. If anything, we may be more susceptible to it because of our profession of faith. Before, we didn't give as much thought to trying to be good. We either were or weren't. It's easy to be unattached and just live life, but when we confess Jesus and are baptized, we often paint a target on our backs not only to the adversary but to anyone who wishes to troll our imperfections in light of our faith.

The majority of Scripture doesn't paint a picture of unblemished saints but people in covenant with God who often stray from that covenant. If you'll notice, a more significant percentage of the New Testament is devoted to correcting misbehavior than is not. Think about it. Can you name a book of Scripture that doesn't expose the sins of God's people? Maybe Esther? Yet, throughout the Bible, we see God's love for an often-straying people.

Several passages speak about a Christian who has departed the faith or is overtaken by sin and what the rest of us who are not should do.

Brethren, if anyone among you wanders from the truth, and someone turns him back, let him know that he who turns a sinner from the error of his way will save a soul from death and cover a multitude of sins. (James 5:19–20; cf. 1:15)

Brethren, if a man is overtaken in any trespass, you who are spiritual restore such a one in a spirit of gentleness, considering yourself lest you also be tempted. (Galatians 6:1; cf. 2:11–13)

But we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you withdraw from every brother who walks disorderly and not according to the tradition which he received from us. (2 Thess. 3:6; cf. vv. 14–15; 2:15)

But now I have written to you not to keep company with anyone named a brother, who is sexually immoral, or covetous, or an idolater, or a reviler, or a drunkard, or an extortioner—not even to eat with such a person. (1 Cor. 5:11)

—Steven

HYMNBOOKS # 9

Generations of church folk, particularly those living east of the Mississippi and in the sphere of influence of Nashville, will recall having sung from the pages of the three editions (1935, 1948 & 1966) of L. O. Sanderson's CHRISTIAN HYMNS, published and marketed by The Gospel Advocate Company. Our hymnbook contains 7 of his creations which are as follows:

- All things Bright & Beautiful (music)
- Why Did The Savior Heaven Leave (music)
- The Precious Book Divine (music)
- Buried With Christ My Blessed Redeemer (music)
- I'll Never Forsake My Lord (music)
- Be With Me Lord (music)
- Pray All The Time (music)

Naturally, some were sung more than others, depending upon where one grew up.

YOUTH

Jacob Vaughan

Camp registration has begun. If you plan on sending your youth to WKYC this year, please register them online at wkyc.org. You will most likely have to start a new registration form as we are using a different handler for registration this year. To receive the Church discount code, please talk to Jacob Vaughan as this procedure has changed as well. Camp is a wonderful opportunity for your kids to grow closer to one another and most importantly, the Lord. I look forward to seeing all your kids at camp.

Ladies Camp will be held next month. There will be a sign up on the youth board once an official date has been picked out. Just like the man camp, this will provide valuable skills for our young ladies to learn to help them thrive as they go through life. This event is for any young lady from middle school and up. I hope we have a great number sign up as this event turned out to be a wonderful experience for our young men.

FBS planning has begun, and the sets are being built as each day passes. We are going to include the adults in our skits this year to spice things up. Any adults that would like to volunteer and show off your acting skills, please speak to me and we can get the ball rolling on those as well. We are doing an adventure theme this year, but I will leave it at that for now. I hope you all can make it. FBS will take place June 3rd - 6th this year.

The youth calendar has been made for 2024.

You can find a copy of this calendar on our website at <https://www.glendaleroadchurch.org/youth-ministry>.

Take a look and see what all the youth has planned for this upcoming year.
