Beware Earthly Power

In the New Testament, we read about something that isn't present in the Old Testament—the Sanhedrin. This council became the governing body of the Jews after the Babylonians destroyed the monarchy and subsequent exile. Israel had a king in the New Testament, but he did the bidding of Rome, and it's clear that Israel didn't respect his authority given that entanglement. The Sanhedrin grew during the Hasmonean dynasty when they revolted against the Greeks to preserve their religion and identity as God's people in a period often referred to as Intertestamental. This dynasty of priests recruited legal experts and priests—usually Pharisees and the latter Sadducees. The Sanhedrin consisted of seventy men who were religious and civil authorities. They oversaw the temple and carried out religious duties. They also were a policing force as well as a court of law. Peter and John drew legal trouble for preaching Jesus as Christ (Acts 4:1–3). When they addressed the Sanhedrin, they boldly proclaimed Jesus (Acts 4:8–12). The body attempted to stop them, but they appealed to God as the standard of what they would do (Acts 4:18–21).

This is how power works. Power corners the market on authority. The authority they had was a responsibility to a nation, and anyone who dared threaten that stability was an enemy. Because they ordered them not to speak in Jesus' name, they set the stage to punish them if they broke that command. Power issues edicts followed by threats. Why? Because they're authoritarian and demand to be obeyed.

Jesus and the Kingdom's manner threatens their operations (Acts 4:23–30) because His ways threaten to upset the order by robbing authorities of their power. This was why He was crucified. The Jews offered up Jesus to maintain their standing with the Romans (cf. John 11:49–52), and the Romans crucified Jesus to keep the peace among the Jews. None of what Jewish leaders did stopped the movement Jesus began. However, the attention the Way received was of concern to many (cf. Acts 5:13). Peter and John were arrested a second time and, subsequently, beaten (Acts 5:40). Yet, the Sanhedrin knew that the tide was turning against them (cf. Acts 5:26).

Are You a Three Timer?

When research was being done in preparation for our centennial, a list was compiled of names who had been members of Water Street. Of course, this list was not complete but it did contain several hundred names.

Someone recently suggested that we attempt to compile a list of current members who attended Water Street prior to the move to Poplar Street in May of 1950. Somebody came up with a rough guess of POSSIBLY 50 people who are still members but that was just an off-the-cuff guess. Actually, I do not think we could come up with 50!

With the recent passing of Sarah Lyons Edwards, we lost another Water Street member as well as her memories of growing up there. Anybody want to take on the task of coming up with such a list for historical preservation in our church records? A three-timer is someone who has worshipped in all three buildings.

YOUTH

Jacob Vaughan

For all that signed up for CYC, please keep in mind the following information. It will take place from February 24th - 26th. We will head out after school on Thursday the 23rd of February. The cost for attendance will be $120 plus enough money for a meal on your own in Gatlinburg as well as for any souvenirs you desire. The signup has been taken down. If you forgot to signup, please tell me asap to see if I have enough tickets for you.

You can find an updated (as of January 23rd) copy of next year's youth calendar on the youth board and online on our website underneath the youth tab. Please take a copy and add the events to your own personal calendars. We have a busy year ahead of us and it should prove to be one filled with opportunity for both growth both physically and spiritually.

We are currently in the process of looking for different residences to host some youth devotionals this summer. If anyone would like to host a youth devo, please reach out to me and we can work something out together.

We are also looking for men to lead the family devotionals that will be coming up this summer. If there are any men that are interested in taking on such a task, please get in touch with me so we can work out both a schedule and topic for this opportunity to serve the Lord.

FBS is right around the corner as well. If you have interest in assisting with this monumental project, give me a shout as we are just now starting to come up with some ideas and a theme.
