Involvement

Garry Evans

A couple of weeks ago, we looked at some traits that might lead to a less than a happy life. Now let's look at some ways that just might help us be even happier than we are right now...

1. Think of others. 'Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others' (Phil. 2:4).
2. Help others for their good rather than for the praise of men. 'Take heed that ye do, not your alms before men, to be seen of them: otherwise ye have no reward of your Father which is in heaven' (Matt. 6: 1).
3. Esteem others so much that you have a consciousness of them. 'But in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves' (Phil. 2:3).
4. Be longsuffering and forbearing. 'With all lowliness and meekness, with long-suffering, forbearing one another in love' (Eph. 4:2).
5. Bless them who mistreat you. 'Bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you' (Matt. 5:44).

Have A Blessed Week

Reclaiming A Symbol

What's the first thing that comes to mind when you see a rainbow sticker, flag, or t-shirt? I believe most of us equate the colors of the rainbow with LGBTQ+. June began their pride month, so while the likes of Martin Luther King Jr., the arrival of the pilgrims, and the birthday of a nation receive a mere twenty-four hours, they have a whole month. Yet, the colors they use as their identifying symbol have for centuries meant something else.

God saw nothing but wickedness on the face of the earth. He knew that the intents of the hearts of humans were evil, so he decided to reboot creation (Gen. 6:5-8). One man, Noah, found grace in his eyes because he lived to please God while the rest of the world didn't. Noah didn't think he was better than anyone else, but he kept his head down, as we'd say, and served God the best he could. God gave Noah divine instructions on how to avoid the judgment that was coming, so Noah and his family obeyed. An ark was constructed, they boarded it, and the floodgates of heaven were opened.

After the waters receded, God made a covenant with humanity and creation. He would never again destroy the earth with the flood, and the sign of this promise was the rainbow he put in the sky (Gen. 9:13). This symbol is a reminder of God's judgment on the earth and the promise that he will never again destroy it by a flood. Whenever we see a rainbow in the sky, we see the beauty of grace and a promise kept.

When Ezekiel saw the vision of the glory of God on his throne, God's appearance was "like the appearance of a rainbow in a cloud on a rainy day" (Ezek. 1:28). John had a similar vision: "And he who sat there ... there was a rainbow around the throne" (Rev. 4:3). We have not only the reminder of God's judgment and mercy in the rainbow but also his very presence. What Ezekiel and John saw was that the appearance of the Lord, as much as they saw, conveys God's promise to creation and the comfort his promises carry.

LIBRARY E. Bailey

ARKANSANS # 2

Those who have lived in or had some extensive experience in Arkansas and who have an interest in church history will be interested in a little-known book in our library titled Arkansas Angels.

Boyd Eugene Morgan (1917-1980) was a well-known preacher in northeast Arkansas and his goal in this book was to uncover and publish information on old-time Arkansas preachers. Because the book was a personal labor of love, it was privately printed and the copy we have is of the 2nd printing in 1967.

Many of the preachers that he features in the book are long ago deceased but Morgan was able to uncover and preserve much church history that would, otherwise, have been lost forever. One thing that is mentioned in the book with which moderns will not be familiar is the old singing schools. The book # is B/Ark/1967.

YOUTH Jacob Vaughan

Glendale is hosting the SYS Tuesday June 7th. Bob Palmer will be our speaker and the title of his lesson, and the entire series is “In Him”. I encourage all of you if you so desire to be in attendance for this wonderful event and see just how much our wonderful Lord is living in the lives of our youth. The church is in good hands.

WKYC is also approaching fast. We will depart Saturday for Chips Palmer’s All-Age-Week of WKYC. The weeks are filling up fast. If you have not registered your children to attend, please do so asap. We have provided a discount code for all members of Glendale. If you are in need of the code, please reach out to me at 270-293-4237 and we will get you hooked up. Also, if you need a ride on the church bus Chip’s week of camp, please let me know asap so I can adjust the vehicle preparation appropriately. We will depart the Glendale parking lot at 11:45. That means you have enough time after church to change and grab something to eat before departing.

The Canoe Trip signup has also been posted on the youth board. June 27 is the date that we will be making this adventure. It will be a very long day where we leave early in the morning and will return later that evening. You will need to bring money for canoe rental and two meals. Pack a lunch that will be eaten on the river and bring a change of clothes and shower supplies, so you won’t smell like a wet dog when we get off the river. This is an amazingly fun trip that is meant for more than just the members of our youth group.

“Rejoice, Give Thanks, Pray”

THANK YOU NOTES

I want to thank everyone who sent me a lovely birthday card and made a special time for me. Church families are special to us older ones.

I want to thank Karen Bolls' Wednesday night class for all the cards they sent me.
