A Scribe's Role

The first instance of recording Scripture occurs at Moses's hand at the covenant's inauguration between YHWH and Israel (Exod. 24:4–8). Scholars mostly agree that the Book of the Covenant mentioned there entailed chapters 21–23 of Exodus, but opinions vary. Moses' upbringing in Egypt explains how he became a scribe in the first place, because they placed a high amount of esteem and respect on the scribe. They believed that a scribe was his own boss and the highest of trades to which one could aspire.

Even in Israel's later history, we see the scribe as one moving in royal circles (2 Chron. 24:11; Esth. 3:12). The scribal chamber was within the palace (Jer. 36:12), and their work often detailed the exploits of the monarchs they served (1 Kings 11:41) as well as the reign of the monarchy itself (1 Kings 14:19, 29). They also served by writing the decrees ordered (Dan. 6:8) and taking dictation (Jer. 36:32). Some might be sent to record the military skirmishes the realm was engaged in (Jer. 52:25), and a useful skill for the scribe to possess in later times was to be bilingual (2 Kings 18:26).

This process led what we know as the Old Testament to be collected around 400 BC, with some arguing that the Law, or Pentateuch (first five books of the Bible), itself was authoritative by that time if not earlier. By 200 BC or earlier, the prophets were canonized (cf. Is. 34:16; Jer. 36:6ff). Unlike our Christian Bibles where the Old and New Testaments are major divisions, the Hebrew Bible (Tanakh) grouped its books differently. There are three groupings of books:

1. The Law (Torah)
Gen–Deut.
2. Prophets (Nevi'im)
Josh, Judg., Samuel and Kings (Former Prophets)
Isaiah, Jer., Ezek., and the Twelve (Latter Prophets)
3. Writings (Ketuvim).
Song of Songs, Ruth, Lamentations, Ecclesiastes, and Esther (Five Megillot)
Daniel, Ezra and Nehemiah, and Chronicles.

This tripartite division is reflected from Ben Sira, who was the first to refer to it in this way (180–175 BC) but may be earlier than him.

Library Church Histories

E. Bailey

Researching and writing congregational histories is a formidable task that few attempt. Thus, there are very few good congregational histories out there. Last week's mention of the Blood River history brings to mind another such book in our library.

Many folks in this church have either lived in Franklin, TN or have relatives who currently live there. Franklin's Fourth Avenue Church of Christ is one of the older churches in that part of Tennessee. No other Church of Christ in the world has the unique history of Fourth Avenue. This 248-page book was written by Mary Anderson and issued in 1993.

The book number in our library is 286.6/And/1993. It's a good, fascinating piece of work.

YOUTH

Jacob Vaughan

We are looking for men to lead the family devotionals that will be coming up this summer. If there are any men that are interested in taking on such a task, please get in touch with me so we can work out both a schedule and topic for this opportunity to serve the Lord.

FBS is right around the corner. If you have interest in assisting with this monumental project, give me a shout as we are just now starting to come up with some ideas and a theme.

Church camp registration for WKYC opens on March 1st at 6:00 AM. If you would like to attend and are a member of Glendale, please use the discount code of glen2023 for a 50% off discount. Registration has gone up to $250 this year just so you are aware of the cost. It will be a great summer and I hope you choose to join us at camp.

Bible Bowl competition will take place April 23rd here at Glendale. The kids are working hard in their study of Romans. Show them some encouragement when you get the chance.

The Easter Egg Hunt will be on Saturday, March 25th at 10 AM at the church building. We invite all kids ages 0-11 who would like to participate to please sign up on the youth board. There is a tote beneath the sign-up sheet for all who would like to donate plastic eggs and/or fillers, these are greatly appreciated!

The mission trip signup has been posted on the youth board. This trip is for high school only. The cost to attend the trip will depend on how many we have going but I will do my best to make sure this trip costs as little as possible. Please sign up by April 2nd. The last day to sign up will be April 30th. Thank you!

“Rejoice, Give Thanks, Pray”

THANK YOU NOTES

We would like to say Thank You to the 16 workers that came to help us change seasons of clothing at Caring & Sharing. We have gained some new workers, for which we are very thankful. Thank you to John & Marsha for bringing pizza for lunch for the workers. It was a good day and we have it looking good.

~~~~~

We returned to Florida yesterday to over a dozen sympathy cards from our family at Glendale. It was so encouraging and much appreciated! Thanks so much!

Kay & Kevin Mack

Thank you for all the birthday messages. Each one was a blessing.

Thank you, Thank you, and Thank you for everything you have done for our precious mama. The visits to her home and Spring Creek, the many cards sent to brighten her days, but most of all the prayers that were said for her and her family also. Thank you for John Dale and his words said at her service, the many members of this church who attended her visitation and beautiful service, and the wall plaque given in her memory. The meal served after the funeral by the Grady's and Ryan's was so appreciated.

We were blessed with Christian parents and this church family at Glendale Road.
