MEN'S RETREAT

March 15th and 16th at Glendale Road Church, no overnight stay this year. Our speaker this year is Lonnie Jones. Registration is going on now in the commons area. See Tim Stark with any questions. Price: $25 a person includes Supper on Friday night and Breakfast on Saturday morning.

Man Camp

will be March 17th between services. This is for middle school boys and up. Each participant will need money for lunch. We will be going to the Gibson's to do basic mechanics like changing tires, etc. If anyone has questions you can see Nick Weber. Signup sheet is on the youth board.

The Importance of Attachment

Shortly after Paul entered Jerusalem, he looked for the disciples so he could join them (Acts 9:26–28). Have you ever had anyone say to you, “You can be a Christian and not be a member of a church,” before? Let me first begin by telling you what church membership is not—and this is as applicable to Christians as it is to those who are not Christians:

1. It is not attendance. Just because you are at services does not mean you are a universal or local body member.
2. It is not practice. Just because you do what everyone else does during attendance does not mean you are a member.
3. It is not a first-name basis with others. Just because you attend and practice what happens in the local church and know many people there does not mean you are a member.
4. It is not participation. You may be good at doing many things and serving. Perhaps you offered to drive a member to a doctor's appointment, or you wanted to help organize VBS. These do not make you a member, even though your participation is greatly appreciated.

Why did Paul want to join the disciples (followers)? What led him to believe that he—as a new Christian (cf. Acts 9:17–18)—should or could join others who thought as he did? Sports fans assemble at stadiums and arenas when the sport of their liking is being played. Golfers may find it necessary to join a country club with a golf course and other amenities. Outdoorsmen are likely to congregate with others of interest if they're not otherwise at an expo or Bass Pro. Logic would dictate that we might want to be with others who share our interests (i.e., book clubs, political affiliations, and social clubs).

He hung with another crowd until Paul was initiated into the church's fellowship. Upon his initiation, he wanted to join those who were of like mind. Initiation into the universal church begins with salvation, which indicates that a person who is not a church member is lost. “And with many other words, he bore witness and continued to exhort them, saying, ‘Save yourselves from this crooked generation.’ So those who received his word were baptized, and there were added that day about three thousand souls” (Acts 2:40–41). Those initiated are “added” to the number that makes up the saved. Does the act of initiation itself add them? No. Their faith directs God (see Colossians 2:12). This act is one of faith in God and what he says he does through baptism. It's him and him alone that can add us to his church (Acts 2:47).

Library HYMNBOOKS # 4

E. Bailey

Few folks in Murray know that some of our early 20th century song books were edited or compiled by a man named Samuel Parker Pittman (1876-1965). A gifted writer, speaker and teacher, Pittman was centered in Nashville and worked closely with the Gospel Advocate in publishing hymnbooks in the pre-WW2 era.

What is even less known in Murray is the fact that, in later life, S. P. Pittman married Murray's own Miss Carrie Redden (1906-1992) who was a member at 7th & Poplar and is remembered as a woman of great grace, learning and Christian devotion. Both are buried in the Murray City Cemetery. "their works do follow them"

YOUTH

Jacob Vaughan

We have made it back from another CYC trip in Pigeon Forge Tennessee and it was an absolute success. We were able to spend a lot of time together as a family in both our studies and our play. The theme of the week was Family, and I would ask that you talk to those that attended and ask them about their experience and what lessons were shared.

A huge thank you to all that made this trip happen. We had a group of twelve chaperones that worked tirelessly to ensure the welfare of our youth and to help cultivate an atmosphere where we could all grow together spiritually.

The CYC Trip ended in the best possible way as we are able to welcome a new brother in Christ. Hunter Williams decided Sunday evening to give his life over to the Lord and become our newest member of the Lord's family. Please welcome him as we strive together in our service and love for the Lord.

A change has been made to the youth calendar.

Please note that the Easter egg hunt has been moved up a week and will now be on March 23rd. The YAC class will be running the event and will be gathering eggs for the event starting Sunday. There will be a tote under the youth board and a sign up sheet for you to write how many kids you will be bringing to the event and their ages.

The youth calendar has been made for 2024. You can find a copy of this calendar on our website at <https://www.glendaleroadchurch.org/youth-ministry>.

Take a look and see what all the youth has planned for this upcoming year.
