Involvement

Garry Evans

If there is life, there is hope. Our Creator does not want any man to be lost (2 Peter 3:9) and gives him every conceivable opportunity to respond to His mercy and grace. And, if we look at life from God's perspective, we will appreciate and use opportunities to obey. However, one should never operate on the assumption that tomorrow will come (James 4:13-14; Job 7:7). Which of us knows when the thief will come? (Matthew 24:42-44). Which of us knows when we shall meet death's appointment? (Hebrews 9:27).

If we view our lost condition as hopeless because we think that our sins are so terrible that God will not forgive, then we have missed the point about God's mercy and grace (Luke 18:13; Hebrews 4:16).

If God could forgive Paul, as a murderer and blasphemer (Acts 7:58; Acts 8:1; Acts 22:1-16; 1 Timothy 1:12-16), He can forgive any man (1 John 1:7; 1 John 1:9).

If you haven't already, won't you please consider God's gift of time to you, and obey His truth today? (cf. Acts 8:26-39; Acts 22:1-16). And, like the Ethiopian eunuch, you can go on your way "rejoicing" (Acts 8:39).

Can Revelation Explain Current Events?

Most Evangelical commentators tend to assert that Revelation was written with three periods of time in mind: 1) things John saw in chapter one, 2) those that were in chapters two and three, and 3) those that would take place afterward, beginning with chapters four or six. Charles Ryrie—in his study Bible notes—advocates the former while John MacArthur—in his Bible handbook—advocates the latter. A pivotal passage to their supposition is 1:19, where it is written: "Write therefore the things that you have seen, those that are and those that are to take place after this."

Evangelicals argue it is that chapters six through twenty-two are end-time (eschatological) material that hinges upon a thousand-year reign. However, internal terminology would refute this claim. We read, "The time is near" (1:3; 22:10); these things "must soon take place" (22:6). Jesus said he was "coming soon" (22:12, 20; cf. 1:1). The terms in English and Greek speak to a swift course of action and certainly not one that would be delayed over two millennia. A case for understanding the time frame in which John's original audience may have understood this prophecy is found when comparing his work to other prophetic literature.

Daniel was told to seal up his vision because it referred to many days from his time (Dan. 8:26). He was also told that the book was to remain sealed "until the time of the end" (12:4). As time went on knowledge would increase as to the culmination of these prophecies. He was urged to go his way because the words of his prophecy were "sealed till the time of the end" (12:9). Studying history along with Daniel's prophecy reveals that it was not for another four hundred years that those kingdoms came which he had been told of (cf. Dan. 2). Therefore, Daniel would not live to see the fulfillment of the prophecies; hence his being instructed to seal the book. So, the sealing of a prophecy book looked ahead to a distant period.

When John wrote Revelation, the angel told him not to seal the words of his book (Rev. 22:10). Why? Because "the time [was] at hand." If Daniel's prophecy saw fulfillment some four hundred years later, and he was told to seal the book, would not John's prophecy have been fulfilled long before the same period since he was told not to seal his book?

Shout, Shout The Sound

At one time in the past, one of the most popular gospel songs in Churches of Christ was Phillip Bliss's "Whosoever Heareth" (#920 in our hymnal) which makes perfect use of the doctrine of free will.

Phillip P. Bliss (1838-1876) is one of the leading luminaries from the golden age of gospel song in the mid to late 19th century and our hymnal contains 10 of his hymns. The tune, known as WHOSOEVER WILL, has added greatly to the song's popularity.

Among his other songs that many will recognize are:

Hallelujah! What A Savior (words & music)

I Gave My Life For Thee (tune)

It Is Well With My Soul (music)

Once For All (words & music)

I Will Sing of My Redeemer (words)

Wonderful Words of Life (words & music)

YOUTH

Jacob Vaughan

Fall-Family-Fun-Night was a lot of fun. Thank you to everyone that participated. Special shout out to all who took the time and effort to make a trunk to help brighten the day of the kids that walked through.

Fall retreat will take place in November on the weekend of the 10th - 12th. Bob Palmer will be our guest speaker this year and we will continue on the topic of being real/ authentic Christians in a fake/ temporary world. The cost to attend will be $60 per participant. This event is for middle/ highschoolers only.

Most of our youth are actively involved in many extracurriculars. It would mean the world to them if you were able to find some time and support them at one of their functions. Show them the love you have for them and the support we should have for one another as we live our lives as pilgrims/ sojourners in a world we don't belong to.

Fall Sports are winding down and winter sports are soon to follow. We have a number of basketball players and cheer leaders that will be at the game. Be sure to say high when you are in attendance.

The Youth Christmas party will be on December 16th this year and will be held here at the Church as we have outgrown the Vaughan residence. We will have the typical gift exchange/ steal shenanigans along with other activities. Food will also be provided. For the gift exchange game, do not spend over $20 on the gift.

During the young men's training class on November 5th, we will be taking the boys into the community to give away food items. This will require more of the fathers to stay and help. We will meet at the church at 4:50 and leave from the parking lot at 5:00. If you are able to assist with this project, it would be greatly appreciated.

Daughters of Dorcas and Young Men Training, ages 3 and up, will be meeting on Sundays at 5:00 on November 5th & 12th. They will be preparing for Little Ladies' Day @ 5:00 and Young Men Lead Service @ 6:00 on Sunday, November 19th.
