Worship Doesn't Override Conduct

A staple of the Restoration Movement is doing things as they were in the Bible. A particular emphasis is given to subjects such as how one is saved, the organization of the congregation's leadership, and worship. We practice those as the apostles did with, perhaps, minor variations. We sing four-part harmony while they likely chanted. We gather in large facilities while they met in houses. You get the idea. What we do is what they did, but because we have emphasized worship, have we overlooked something else that's very important?

Some Christians operate under the impression that their proper worship of God excludes living a life complimentary of the worship that He seeks (John 4:23-24). "As long as we don't worship with instruments..." they say. "As long as we partake of the Lord's Supper every first day of the week..." they say. We claim to worship in spirit and truth, which we should, but have we made our bodies a living sacrifice to God in addition to that (cf. Rom. 12:1-2)?

Saul was anointed the king of Israel, and God gave him the commission to kill all the Amalekites for what they did to Israel (1 Sam. 15:2-3; cf. Deut. 25:17-19; Exod. 17:8-16). However, Saul only did some of what he was commanded to do (1 Sam. 15:14). He claimed that he disobeyed God because he wanted to worship God (1 Sam. 15:15). This led to his rebuke and rejection from being king. God wanted his obedience more than worship, and this theme appears repeatedly in Scripture.

David acknowledged that if God wanted worship, he would give it, but in his sin, it was insufficient (Ps. 51:15-16; cf. Prov. 21:3). Throughout Israel's history, they often substituted obedience for worship, thinking the latter absolved them from the former. Read all the passages where God addresses this matter (cf. Is. 1:11-17; Jer. 7:22-23; Hos. 6:6; Amos 5:21-24; Micah 6:6-8; Mal. 1:10). Worshiping rightly is essential. I don't wish to set up a false dichotomy here. However, living obediently to God should accompany it. Otherwise, wouldn't God simply tell us to quit as he did to those of old?

It may come as a surprise to some that the Federal Government officially recognizes 574 different Native American tribes and sub-tribes in this country. Many of these tribes are grouped into several major language families such as Muskogean, Athabaskan, Algonquian, Iroquoian and several others.

Many of these 574 language groups have produced their own hymnals and, as a member of the Mississippi Band of the Choctaw nation, Steven is in possession of a Choctaw hymnal titled Chahta Vba Isht Taloa Holisso which was printed by Global Bible Society in Asheville, NC,

This particular hymnal is words only and consists of several hundred numbers, mostly in Choctaw, with a few dozen English language numbers at the end. There are, of course, numerous tribal language hymnals with the music as well. (tune in same time, same station next week)

YOUTH

Jacob Vaughan

We are searching for fathers that are willing to lead family devotionals during the summer. The dates that need to be filled are August 18th and September 15th. The overarching theme for our young youth this summer is "SWEET" and we will be tying in the family devotionals as well as the family retreat coming up in October. I am hoping to get some fathers that have not led in the past in order to provide them an opportunity to serve the Lord in a new, and perhaps uncomfortable way. Please let me know if you are able and willing to take on this role.

The second family devotional will be on Sunday, July 28th following PM services. Jacob Falwell will be speaking with the topic being savory.

The next SYS will be on July 30th and will be hosted by Briensburg Church of Christ in Benton. The departure time will be 6:15 and we should return home around 9:30 or so.

The Holiday World trip will take place on July 25th. A sign up has been posted on the youth board. Please sign up asap so we can plan accordingly. Cost to attend will be $40 per ticket. You will also need to bring money with you for meals throughout the day.

The next youth devotional will be on August 4th. We will have guys bring drinks and gals bring deserts. Please bring individually canned or bottled drinks. No 2-Liters. This event will be held at the church over in the field next to the sharing and caring building.

The Back-to-School Bash will be held here at the church on August 2nd. A sign up will be posted later in the month. We will have a slip and slide and food for those in attendance. The event will start at 5:30 and run through 8:00 and will occur at the pavilion. If possible, have your family bring some homemade ice cream to share with everyone in attendance.
